Introduction

Life is endless and the lessons taught everywhere by the Creator through everything are endless. It is therefore befitting for anybody to know good , apply good and reference good to others with experience.

The world has many males but a few men , plenty females but a few women. One is a gender , the other is a responsibility, an assignment and a passion. Blessed are them that find vain yet God-given purposes beyond their gender.

Some life lessons are hidden in the ongoing clutter of extreme productivity and less purposeful living in pursuit to satisfy the envy and lust of the heart with vast vanities.

You cannot have everything you want you in life but you can have everything that's good for you. Sometimes what's good for you is unknown to your ignorance , self-concept and your motives.

All is vain, meaningless to us yet meaningful to the Creator. This earth and everything in it is but for His own glory and pleasure.

Your chosen meditations become your decided actions. You always have choices to whom you will serve with your life.

Chapter 1

Wrong reaction to being wronged

It was during my Grade 12 where the Principal at the time applauded me in front of every student for the great example of leadership I was setting as a high school president. That mere appraisal spark jealousy and confrontation towards me by my teacher. She ridiculed me unmeritably and discredited me in the presence of my classmates. I was angry and sad that I reacted badly by not doing my classworks and homeworks. While in line to receive a beating from her. I banged her door and left her classroom. I didn't attend her classes for 7 days yet kept doing my homeworks and classworks. She took it up with our deputy Principal who called me in. I told my deputy Principal what had happened and how it hurt me. My deputy Principal convinced me to write a letter of apology and send it to my teacher. She further opened my eyes as to why my wrong reaction to my teacher's wrong actions would have cost me my leadership position and how the Word of God instructs us to be humble, apologize first even if I am not wrong. I did as my deputy Principal instructed and went the extra mile to get buy a chocolate to accompany the letter of apology . The matter ceased completely, harmony and peace erupted between me and my teacher to this day.

I look back at what my deputy Principal, taught me and I realize how relevant this is to me to this day. Humbling yourself in situations where you are wronged and being the one to initiate peaceful measures isn't easy but possible . It takes a genuine reverence for God Almighty to react and respond righteously to unrighteousness...

Serving people you don't like cheerfully

It is so easy to serve people you are fond of and whom you personally favor than those you don't like or favor. There may be contributing factors to why you aren't fond of certain people. Sometimes you have no power on those contributing factors as it is the initiated of those very people. At times, it may be a bad reference you have of those very people and such references may have affected your attitude towards them.

There was time where my parents shared stories of their harsh and troubled upbringing. My attitude towards the people who caused my parent's hardship changed and I harboured hatred towards them. These family members became a nuisance to me despite my parents having had forgiven them. I lost respect for them completely and refused to serve them when requested too. Boy! I wanted vengeance for my parents like nobody's business.

At the brink of my salvation, I took the path of forgiveness and that is to forgive what these family members did to my parents and to excuse myself from any form of vengeance. I understood that their sight would always remind me of their trespasses against my parents and that it was my continued responsibility not to hold it against them or their children.

It would have been better if my parents had not told me as I had to go through a complete reprogramming founded on God's Word. Twelve virtues that were required and built in me :

1. Forgiveness
2. Temperateness
3. Compassion
4. Mercy
5. Tolerance
6. Partiality
7. Endurance
8. Gentleness
9. Humility

10. Love

11. Wisdom

12. Faith

If my parents could forgive these family members, love them regardless and do good to them then who was I to bring defeat on a battle they were winning.

When I reflect on this experience, I remember the Lord's teaching on always looking beneath the surface to see clearly the spirit at work in a person so that I may freely forgive , give mercy and love them as God Almighty does daily to me .

Our greatest breakthrough tend to happen after we pass love tests and progress through character building trials by yielding to Jesus Christ's teachings. If you aren't growing and flourishing in your faith , check for signs of disobedience in various areas of your life.

Chapter 3

The power of your decisions

Bad decisions usher and enable curses. Good decisions usher and enable blessings. Bad decisions become burdens . Good decisions become vessels of noble use.

Your decisions either disqualify or qualify you for unlimited possibilities. Life gives you the power of choice and whatever you decide either propels you to tremendous fulfillment or wasteful living.

At the junction of your life . Employ two parameters of wisdom which are foresight and insight. Foresight gives you the courtesy to see far ahead into the decision you want to make while insight takes you straight to the source of the voice that's suggesting that very enticing thought. Once those parameters are employed and used to their fullest . The decision is still yours to make with clear understanding of the various consequences and pleasures within that very decision.

So often good decisions require sacrifice of pleasure first to only give you desirable pleasure as an end product. Bad decisions present pleasure with hidden harsh consequences and misery as an end product.

Society breeds alot of bad and good decision-makers .Take time and look around . If you haven't made a complication of your life. Don't seek to do so. Enjoy the fruits of your good decisions. You aren't going to do anything different by making the same wrong , sabotageous and bad decisions your elders made because there is really no new outcome. You are going to be miserable, suicidal, sick ,destructive and bitter like them. Why not take a different road altogether ?

Your gift longs for His presence

Your gift will present you before kings but it is only His presence in you that will sustain and keep you in the service of kings. A man's gift cannot build his character but God's presence in a man automatically builds character in him , the very character that edifies ,carries and protects the gift of a man.

Your gift is God's heart to mankind. To touch God's heart, you have to serve it to all men whether you are paid or not.

What do you prefer as a your remuneration for your service? Money, fame and favor from men or riches in this life ,in the after life , honor and long life from God Almighty ?

Chapter 5

Learn attentively from the experiences of the old

Foolishness is close to youth and wisdom is close to the old. The youth seldomly cares about what happens 10 years from now and the old can't stop regretting the foolishness they sowed 10 years ago. Youth is strong and enthusiastic yet foolish. Old is weak and slow yet wise.

What's best then ?

Let a wise youth pursue in balance the wisdom of the old for the road ahead bends at the same curve where the old once crashed in their youth.

The foolishness of your youth will punish you . The wisdom of your youth will reward you. These adults around us are serving the sentences and at the sametime enjoying the freedom of their youthful decisions. Life leaves no stone unturned.

Don't travel on a road until you inquire of men who once travelled it successfully, those who are travelling it and those who stopped travelling that particular road. There aren't new roads just new travellers. The oldest traveller of all roads is God Almighty so inquire off Him above all else.

Where you have wide options is your free will. You can do as you please. Where you have narrow options is God's permissible will. You can do widely as God Almighty pleases. Where you have no option is God's will. Submitting your freewill to God's will is exceptional wisdom and not many people do that.

A equilibrium between speed & direction

It is always important to know where you are going in life otherwise you will waste your life doing everything for nothing.

I am into motorsports so much that I derive life lessons from the sport. In rally racing . A driver is assigned a co-pilot who navigates the directions the driver should take . One drives fast and the other gives direction. It is the co-ordination of their individual inputs that propel the team to victory always. The driver relies on his co-driver for navigation and co-driver relies on his driver to floor the pedal to victory. It is a tough sport that outlines the fundamental factors of success which are speed and direction. The navigating co-driver knows what's ahead by interpreting the maps and the driver knows how to manipulate the capability and capacity of the vehicle he drives.

So often we have the enthusiasm (speed) and hardly the enrichment (direction) to carry out our passion. The journey to finding direction is a humbling one that sets out to build character in us .

Wait ready! Nothing wastes opportunity like a lack of preparation.

Driving a fast car doesn't change the journey nor does it lessen the kilometres travelled or change the anticipated destination . All it does is to get you fast and first at the anticipated destination but at a higher cost of resources and at a foolish risk of your life.

The power of a woman

A vessel is normally used by a source to transmit effectively the source's agenda . If a woman is God's vessel , she will transmit what's off God effectively. A vessel enables and serves the purpose that it is given.

Women were created to purposefully enable every noble thought , serve God Almighty with their given abilities and to influence godliness everywhere. Behind a successful man , there is a woman who understands and uses her influence power wisely. Behind an unsuccessful man is a woman who doesn't understand the use of her influence power and uses her influence power wickedly and foolishly so. Women make and destroy kings of note .Women are very powerful.

Men's position power represents God's authority. Women's influence power represents God's power. In the tongue and character of a woman is God's power.

It lies within the hands of women to build or to destroy kings .A woman given fully to God Almighty in Jesus Christ is a life-giver, a value-builder and a gatekeeper of everything and anything she touches. A Godly woman is the devil's biggest enemy while an ungodly woman is the devil's bestfriend.

A man is built to safeguard a woman's influence power and a woman is built to honor a man's position power.

God Almighty comes first in any man with vision . Most women want a man with a God-given vision but don't have the qualifying capacity to incubate and to carry that very vision with him.

The greatest visionaries in the Bible where either single or sidelined their wives to focus on God Almighty. Vision-driven men hardly marry because they prize the destiny and will keep away any woman who dares to hinder it .

There is a great number of men who sold their destiny for the seek of beauty, comfortability and sex . There is a number of visionaries who will never commit to any woman. In fact they would rather buy prostitutes to quench their sex drives on the go but they are reluctant to marry . Then there are visionaries who married right , who took their time , tested character in the women of interest and today they are one in everything (favour from God) . Lastly there are visionaries who made wrong choices in women and today they are suffering the consequences harshly.

There is a woman who inspires you to beat your drum and a woman who dances to the beating of your drum. One is in production and the other is in consumption. Blessed is he who finds a producer and a consumer in one woman.

I equally believe in women and men . A potential God-fearing head is nothing without a God-fearing helper . The empowerment of both should be equal because both male and female are equally important in building a God-fearing nation.

Women are weaker vessels because they lack virtue and an unconditional submission to God Almighty most of the time . Women are very vulnerable to the deceitfulness of their hearts. Women are quick to respond and react unrighteously to only regret later on . Women are quarrelsome , prideful , gossipers , selfish, seductive and hate easily . The unrighteousness of women doesn't exempt them from God's grace.

To possess the world , the enemy used a woman . To redeem the world God Almighty used a woman. Seemingly both God Almighty and the devil know the sacred influence power of a woman.

Through women as vessels to either God Almighty or the devil , great kings have been made and great kings have been destroyed. It is vitally important for a woman to submit herself to God Almighty.

Women everywhere have a challenge of getting along well . It is clear that they don't trust each other as they are aware of each other's capability of harm and good under both God's and the enemy's influence . Despite their many weaknesses. God Almighty charges us to live with women with much understanding.

As a good , sensible and righteous man by faith in Jesus Christ , don't get involved with a woman who isn't continuously submitting herself to God Almighty . If you do , you are digging your own grave and there is no sympathy for your foolishness. A woman not submitted to God Almighty regardless of her beauty, intelligence and good qualities is a trap to your destruction . Should you ignore her level of submission to God Almighty, you are going to pay heavily for your ignorance.

These young boys are watching us!

We live in a society where many boys are raised by their mothers only hence one can't live as one pleases because you never know who is looking up to your life's example.

You don't have to have a son to be a father. The moment you become eligible to distinguish between right and wrong , you begin to mentor many others unawaresly so.

My guy, don't let that child grow up without you. He/she needs a loving father my . Own up and show up . Your thoughtfulness will reward you one day. Find a way to be part of your child's life .

Let your children know their father loves them and believes in them .

I had the total privilege of being fathered very well by my late father but he didn't have that opportunity to be fathered by my grandfather. It is said that my grandfather left my grandmother , my father at the age of 4 and my aunt at age of 2 . My father hardly had memories of his own father. In fact , he hated father's day and hated his father for leaving them at a young age. My father attributed his mother's alcoholic addiction to my grandfather's departure. Where my grandmother and her twin sister both left by their baby daddies died of alcohol poisoning.

My dad learnt from outsourcing fathering skills and knowledge from grown men in his surrounding as he grew up. He learnt a lot about fathering on the job. He raised me and my cousin as tight and hardcore brothers . We have each other's back to this day.

It was during 2017 after my dad suffered from several stroke attacks that I lead him to a place of total forgiveness towards his absent father. I had never in my life seen my dad cry like that.

Today I have deep reference of fatherhood because of a man who chose to become better and to do better than his own father. I am progressive in life because of the advantages my father gave me. Off course! I am charged to do even better when I kids of my own.

Fathering is a call and not so many males answer that very call . Fathering is important otherwise why would God Almighty charge fathers or husbands? Fathering is purpose and it must be intentional done with all passion and service to God Almighty.

" Over 60% of South African kids are in homes without fathers. Ten percent of these households have lost the father due to death, and 50% of the fathers are alive but are not present in the lives of their kids. These stats were acquired from the Stats SA General Household Survey 2016/2017 ".

Many ladies don't have a daughter and father relationship. This is a problem as that contributes to how they relate to us men. This phenomenon is catastrophic in society especially when her confidence is going to be built by other men who off course are going to take advantage of her.

A large number of women are out to wreck homes and steal someone's father because they too grew up without a father so they don't care whose life gets destroyed in the process.

Most women never had their first boyfriends (father) , the special drives or walks , affirmative talks , gifts , story book time and playtime. The standard for a good man is not there at all hence they fall for any man who sings "I love you " , they attach themselves too deep, hang on these men for dear life because they somehow have found a belonging, a host for their void and should these men leave them , their worlds come crumbling down . These women in turn due to those heartbreaks become heavy alcoholics, smokers, sex-addicts ,power-mongers and extremely suicidal.

We can do so much as uncles and brothers but a girl child needs her father.

Adam, Solomon, Samson & Abraham's weakness

Men under the influence of the women they love dearly don't think straight . They conform to the greatest stupidity and foolishness of all times.

1. Adam ate the same forbidden fruit without questioning his wife .
2. Abraham even after God Almighty told him that Sarah would bore him a son still brought into Sarah's suggestion of chowing Hagar so that she can bore him a son.
3. Samson exposed the secret of his strength under the promiscuity of Delilah .
4. Solomon too under the promiscuity of his foreign wives forsook God Almighty.

All these are great men of God but their choice of women surely cost them. From their life examples, you know what to avoid and what not to do gentlemen.

The raise and the fall of a man linger on the following :

1. Relationship with God
2. Himself
3. The type of woman he dearly loves.
4. His friends
5. Inner circle
6. Overcoming the devil of his forefathers

But there is a man who put his wife in order and that man was Job . He was a solid and firm chap who loved God Almighty. So gentlemen, your relationship with God Almighty is very important and non-negotiable with any women.

Chapter 10

God's promise & man's plan

Sarah doubted God Almighty and she made a plan. When she overheard the conversation Abraham had with the Divine visitors, she laughed.

When God Almighty fulfilled the promise to bore a son through her - it was God's turn to laugh at her . Sarah found herself in a dilemma where she realized that the promise of God Almighty cannot co-exist with her plan. In her repentance, Ishmael and Hagar had to be sent away. Ishmael grew without a father, he didn't get the same privileges that Isaac got because of Sarah's pursuit to try to help God Almighty. Off course her assistance was from a place of concern but she ridiculed God Almighty in her ways of unbelief. She caused Abraham to commit adultery and to defile their marriage(perhaps we overlook that because Hagar was a slave ?)

If God Almighty promised you something .Wait! Faithfully as you have believed faithfully so. Don't be like Sarah.

It is what you do while you wait that jeopardizes and threatens what was promised. God's promises require patience in faith. God Almighty fulfills His promises but in what state will the fulfillment of His promises find you in ?

When you enter a season of compromise

There are series of temptations that will knock you off your feet to your knees and it is only on your knees that you will find strength and wisdom needed to overcome your season of temptation.

You are likely to fall into temptations, grieve the Holy Spirit and wander into disobedience blindly but not without redemption. God Almighty will come looking for you in the snares of your compromises and in the fowler's cage.

We cannot expect perfection in any man called off God Almighty. We can expect perfection in the God Almighty that calls men to His own service and purpose when you call.

The enemy is careful to use your struggle with sin as a weapon to disqualify you from serving God Almighty. Even the wisest of us have very foolish seasons . Only God Almighty is entirely wise. Real fellowship occurs when we consume God's strength while He consumes our weakness.

There are flaws, imperfections, foolishness, shortcomings and wickedness in most of the men used mightily by God

Almighty in their generations. Why ? It was these men's humility before God's throne , the desire for inward purity , the pursuit of God's wisdom , willingness to serve God Almighty at all cost and a timeless need for God Almighty that positioned them as vessels of good and noble use.

Take roads that are less travelled

It is in making good quality decisions that will make you stand out from the crowd . 10 years ago they despised , mocked and troubled you for not deciding to indulge in their destructiveness and 10 years after they looking up to you to constructively rebuild themselves.

The results of common roads are visible in the lives of those in our societies and families. If you decide like them . You will not have new experiences .

People's opinions are only true when you believe them otherwise keep making good quality decisions daily. You will surely reap the rewards.

Intruding a covenant is dangerous

If you cheat with a married man/woman. Your whole life is at the mercy of his husband/wife. Whatever curse that married man/woman will pronounce upon your life will immediately be active for even God Almighty agrees with him/her until the day you approach him/her for forgiveness.

"Let marriage be held in honor (esteemed worthy, precious, of great price, and especially dear) in all things.

And thus let the marriage bed be undefiled (kept undishonored); for God will judge and punish the unchaste [all guilty of sexual vice] and adulterous".- Hebrews 13:4

Those married men/women in your inboxes are your downfall, it is a trap youngster. Young man and woman no matter how strong your urges are . Refuse yourself passion that will defile someone's marriage bed. That very temptation is a snare to curses unimaginable that will hit you and your descendants. Don't complicate your life . Better avoided than to be at the mercy of someone's spouse and God's wrath .

Whoever challenges marriage , challenges God Almighty .
God Almighty will avenge on behalf of the cheated spouse .

"What therefore God has united (joined together), let not man separate or divide". - Mark 10:9

God Almighty didn't spare David when he chowed Uriah's wife, Bathsheba and conspired to kill Uriah, her husband.

Why did David have to conspire to kill Uriah?

1. David would have forfeited his throne.
2. Uriah had God's backing and taking David down would be very easy.
3. Men by nature are merciless when you violate the woman he loves .
4. Uriah would have demanded ridiculous compensations from David including David's own life.

God Almighty killed David's son , the one Bathsheba bore from their adulterous affair. There are harsh consequences for intruding marriage . It will not go well with you . It is bound to catch up with you .

Better intrude an unmarried relationship than to intrude a marriage. The degree of consequences in intruding a marriage is for a lifetime and eternity.

Chapter 14

It is not just a job, it is an altar to serve God Almighty

I have hardly met a person who said they are going to work to serve God Almighty. All you hear is how much work it is, how much they hate their work , how rude their co-workers and boss is then you wonder, are these people conscious of God Almighty? Are they even aware that their promotion is right before them ? Is it not the very unfavorable conditions that build a Godly character in them?

Don't you know that God Almighty can be served anywhere and that He daily gives you plenty opportunities to serve Him in others?

Remember Joseph? Whose diligence and faithfulness before God Almighty earned him tremendous favour everywhere ? Was not God Almighty with him ? Will not God Almighty be with you ?

Find believers of God's agenda for even amongst Christians, the motives to wholeheartedly serve God Almighty aren't the same regardless of that truth. Keep love mandatory always.

Performers are gifted , they profit on reference and hardly walk with God Almighty. Practitioners are gifted , have first hand experiences and walk with God Almighty. Performers entertain with reference while practitioners impart with experience . Staying a performer for the rest of your unknown days is foolish and off great stupidity. Yes! Becoming a practitioner costs, to give up your entire life to God Almighty for His usage and original purpose is very fulfilling.

There is danger with accommodating change and not to totally embrace change because that's where all your frustrations and unfulfillment streams from.

Chapter 15

Your life learning perspective affects your daily reality always

Some people are unable to love , to be kind and to be positive as result of the bad attitudes they learnt through life's hardships, tragedies and misfortunes . These learnt bad attitudes are even inspired by responses and reactions of people close to them making their outlook on life extremely bad.

These learnt bad attitudes make them toxic people and unattractive to want to befriend, date and marry.

In every situation of your life , you either conform to its evil teachings or you conquer by giving into good teachings. In an evil situation, applying good teaching is hard because even your flesh, logic and emotions are on the evil side of the equation and all you have in at the center is your spirit and a pure whispering voice and that combination too requires a decision from you . Once you give into that pure whispering voice , you win greatly as a deep affirmation opens your eyes to the goodnesses of your good decisions.

If you heed your mother's evil teachings and example to ridicule and undermine your father whether he is present or not , you are not going to influence men right. Discern your mother's teachings least you inherit her bitterness otherwise you will not build a stable home of own one day. You will bear children of countless surnames and no man will ever see value in you as his wife. The curse of your father is dangerous while the blessing of your father is paradise on earth.

How you treat your father is how you treat God Almighty Himself.

Re-evaluate what and who influences you!

We cannot look up to arrogant adults, mentors, counsellors, advisors and think we would turn out any different. Influence is contagious. Disqualify them as your mentors and advisors if needs be to avoid imitating their unrighteousness and compromise.

Ever since you positioned them as your mentors and advisors, what are the fruits of their influence in you? Are you still on track or compromising worse? Eliminate unfruitful influences and enthrone fruitful influences. No man is an island.

Chapter 16

Don't discredit in your disliking

Even if you don't like someone or you aren't fond of them. Don't discredit their name . You will need them one day. Shame will grips your face at their sight because God Almighty is too wise to teach you lessons .

Don't pee in unclear waters for those waters will protect you from danger soon. Don't allow your feelings about someone make you dent their image. You might require their favor tomorrow.

Refrain from speaking ill of people you don't like . How will the ears of those you tell trust you with their own secrets while you never cease to banish the images of others ?

I have seen people who discredited me require my help while others were too ashamed to look at me because of how they discredited me behind my back.

If ever you meet someone who tarnishes the image or reputation of another to gain favour with you. Ask yourself this question - why are they trying to buy favour with you ?

What does he/she want or what mission are they on ? Won't they tarnish your image and reputation exactly like whoever they are tarnishing now right before you ?

A man maybe wicked to you and righteous to someone else.
The testimony you bear about him will present you as a liar to someone who has experienced a different side off him especially when you are not merciful and gracious.

There is a group of people who strive and thrive on defaming other people everywhere. From such , stay away...

Spectate and specialize

If you spend your whole life watching others try, fail, rise and finish their race then it would have been better for you not to be born. Don't waste your life spectating . Get into the vast current and specialize in your gift , skill and talent.

If you really played your part and stop making excuses , being a spectator and a critic of everything good . This country of ours would be a better place for all of us .

Befriending Patience

In a fast paced world. We tend to lose ourselves in pursuit to keep up with it . We downgrade our values and our prices to get all the money we can . In all that I have learnt that patience is still the "THING".

Why patience?

1. Cautious of your environment
2. Calculated risks
3. Understand your weaknesses
4. Look for complements
5. Exploit your strength
6. Grow character
7. Prepare excellently

Patience is rewarding at the end of the day . You will applaud yourself for waiting ready.

" I prepared good , prepared better and prepared best then finally the opportunity met me ready".

What do you regret not waiting for? Imagine if you waited before being impulsive about which direction to take . Patience is tested self-control ,it cannot be attained without good meditation on wholesome content and recapping of your primary envisioned desire.

A lot of our mistakes in this life happen when we aren't patient with God Almighty, others and ourselves. We are so in a hurry for stages in life we aren't thoroughly prepared for.

We try to solve temporary problems with permanent compromises that backfire till the end our lives.

Look at your life . What are the results of your impatience? What are the rewards of your patience?

Listen here , your time to blossom will come because to, "To Everything there is a time and a season". Work on that gift , that skill and increase your knowledge and wisdom in the direction of God's purpose for your life. You aren't dying ! You are not late ! You are in a place of waiting!

Chapter 18

This world is absurd & futile

Sinners who aren't caught are prosecuting sinners that are caught. As long as you repent daily , you are a sinner whether you are caught or not.

How are you different from a pastor caught in adultery while you are fornicating with various men as a journalist ? Whose sin is superior or deserves exposure ? Even these idiots that expose others are guilty of sin themselves.

There is not a judge or police officer even preachers that aren't hypocrites. I find sinners judging sinners stupid, vain, exhausting and foolish .

John : Jabu stop drinking and fornicating with Joy .Repent and let's go to church.

Jabu : John just last night you were flirting with your pastor's wife and yesterday you were teaching sister Palesa chords on your bed.

John : How do you know all that Jabu ?

Jabu : You borrowed me your phone this morning and I peeped through your window yesterday afternoon. See John . Both of us are guilty of sin . We are fallen short of God's glory and we both know we need Christ more than anything. So please John stop judging people, show them God's love with your life and your testimony of His nature in you. Seek your own encounter with Christ otherwise you will go to hell as a known judgemental and hypocritical Christian.

John: I am sorry Jabu.

Jabu : I love you my brother. Have a blessed Sunday at church.

If you are looking for perfection in churches, believers and in church leaders. Die and go to heaven . Here on earth , you will not find it for not even your own self can attest to perfection. Apart from Jesus Christ, we are nothing.

We are fallen . Dead because of sin . Jesus Christ is our resurrection to the life of God Almighty bestowed in the beginning in us , our reconciled righteousness before God Almighty and our long lasting love. Apart from Him , the Church doesn't exist.

May we always remember that by grace , we were saved and that by grace, more souls through our testimony of Christ , obedience to His teachings and love amongst ourselves as believers will be saved.

Giving & helping with the right heart

It is very important to apply your whole heart to your giving and helping to someone. Why ? The urgency and heart you give to the person is the same urgency and heart that God Almighty is going to give to you . In the same manner of your doing which expresses your heart will be the same manner God Almighty uses multiplied. If you had made someone have to beg you for days , you will in turn will beg God Almighty for even more days because He repays a man according to his works therefore give cheerfully, eliminate murmuring and contemptuousness from your heart.

Better is the honest , quiet and little help of a wise and sensible person than the flattering, prideful and vast help from a rich fool.

Keep your promises to God Almighty. If you promised Him aid to the poor and needy in your prayers that if He blesses and favours you with a financial opportunity , you will in return honor Him abundantly with aids - keep that promise otherwise you will take upon a curse for yourself and the lack that will come your way will overwhelm you.

If you are going to ridicule, manipulate and despise someone tomorrow because you helped them yesterday - keep your help .

There was nothing Abraham couldn't give to God Almighty and there was nothing God Almighty couldn't give to Abraham . Now's that's tight friendship.

"Reward people's patience, it is rare!"

I visited a local cafe sometime ago for the first time to get some kasi takeaways . Noticing that we were waiting patiently. The owner of the shop brought a 2Lt coke bottle regardless of us having brought our own bottle as a token to us for waiting long which we didn't have a problem with . The gesture touched me deeply as it reminded me of what my father taught me - reward people's patience because it is rare.

I apply the exact same practice in business to my customers. It takes alot in people to have character that's why even the value of your reward mustn't be mediocre. Why? Character in people is rare and should you find it or experience it - compliment and reward it.

Dwell in the secret places of the Most High

The worst form of hurt , betrayal, and prosecution is not going to come from the world but from your own brethren. The same believers that praise and support you today are going to despise and desert you tomorrow. Why ? The enemy will always hit home and at the closest ranges so that you can forsake your faith in Jesus Christ.

How then do you stand ? Like Jesus Christ who prioritized fellowship with the Father more than fellowship with the disciples so should you daily. You are more safe with God Almighty than you are with believers.

Even when the disciples denied , the Father was with Him till the end. May God Almighty be your everlasting and closest Companion .

Partnership is essential

Your partner is strong where you are weak and weak where you are strong. Failing to support your partner's weakness with your strength leaves your partner vulnerable to other available strengths which will result to your own weaknesses not strengthened.

Building true partnership is a worthwhile process. Why ? The benefits of a partnership linger so much on the thoughtful and selfless contribution of both partners to the partnership.

A striker cannot defend nor can a defender score goals like a striker. Both defender and striker work as partners to win even if they lose a match . Should they compete instead of complementing one another, loss is inevitable.

"Two are better than one, because they have a good [more satisfying] reward for their labor; For if they fall, *the one will lift up his fellow. But woe to him who is alone when he falls and has not another to lift him up!

Again, if two lie down together, then they have warmth;
but how can one be warm alone?
And though a man might prevail against him who is alone, two will withstand him. A threefold cord is not quickly broken". - Proverbs 4 : 9 -12*

Dear reader

I have openly and peacefully accepted God's call and gift upon my life to edify the Church and to impart knowledge and wisdom as it is transmitted to me. For years I have operated as the world operated in regards to distributing knowledge and wisdom. It wasn't until I came to full repentance due to a divine instruction given to me as a steward of knowledge and wisdom.
